Empowerment through creative expression at the Restigouche Hospital Center

As an expression of my gratitude for your contribution to help make my vision for my 21Leaders project a reality, I wanted to share with you the amazing kit of supplies I was able to purchase with the funds raised through my Indiegogo campaign. On the next page, I've provided the plan for the day that the project will be delivered – Monday, February 11th. If you have any feedback, please contact me regarding any questions at vanessapaesani@gmail.com.

If you selected a perk in a painting, I will be creating this the day of the session and will forward some photos of the day along. I can't wait.

Thanks again. This wouldn't have been possible without you.

WHAT WILL THE DAY LOOK LIKE?

The goal of the session is to facilitate clients creating art to be displayed in the hallways of the RHC.

Clients will be provided with:

- Canvasses (option of 1 med size and 1 small)
- Acrylic paint
- Paintbrushes
- Paint trays
- Painting aprons
- Frame: this will be available for if clients want to tell the story of their painting, I will type it up, and it will be displayed next to the painting.

‘Open’ Painting:

Clients will also be able to contribute to a large acrylic, ‘open’ painting. Anyone – clients, staff, visitors - may choose to contribute to this painting, and it will take its own form during the day.

Once this is complete, Vanessa will paint in black on the top of this :

At the Restigouche Hospital Centre, we believe that everyone can be an artist.
